

back when we were all machines iPhone you phone glue-it-to-my-face-phone

i'll never be alone again Blackberry, in the loop, gives me all the latest poop
i'll never be alone again facebook, iBook, myspace, please look
 i'll never be alone again AT & T-Mo, gimme stuff that's free so

*makes me feel my robot roots

i-Podded bipeds, shoot me up my techno meds
i'll never be alone again i need so much your Shuffle Classic Nano Touch
i'll never be alone again Mini-Mac, Air Pro; white, black, day-glo
 i'll never be alone again
 Call of Duty, Total War, Rise of Nations, Solitaire

makes me feel my robot roots . . .

 baby, don't leave my laptop unplugged
 upgrade my plan, i'll take everything i can i'll never be alone (never be alone) backed up junk mail, drugs porn for sale

twitter flicker blog me, virtually flog me
 text me, sext me, don't need to be next to me
 wear me, bear me, photoshop and share me

makes me feel my robot roots . . .
