Cindy Kallet is a superb singer, guitarist, and songwriter. She has taught and performed extensively throughout North America, and appeared on A Prairie Home Companion and WFMT's Folkstage. She has recorded 11 albums and has also published a songbook of 32 of her original songs. Her first album, Working on Wings to Fly was voted one of the "Top 100 Folk Albums of the [last] Century" by WUMB Boston radio listeners, and Kallet's Leave the Cake in the Mailbox – Songs for Parents and Kids Growing Up was chosen for a 2004 Parents' Choice Gold Award. Cindy is also known for her work with Grey Larsen, Gordon Bok, and Ellen Epstein & Michael Cicone.

Her repertoire includes original songs on such varied topics as love (lost and found), home, the state of the world, diapers, and skunks. She also loves to share her favorite traditional and contemporary folk songs.

Scott Alarik of The Boston Globe calls Cindy "...one of folk music's most respected songwriters... provocative, heartwise, and original ...a brilliant guitarist..."
